7.1 3	In addition to the Supervisor, a Co-Supervisor may also be recommended by the Supervisor at the time of the registration or at a later stage in special cases, where the research work involves study or investigation in more than one subject or area of knowledge and the student needs guidance from an expert in an allied area of knowledge for part of the research work.
7.1 4	In all cases, the registration of a candidate shall remain valid for a period of five years.
7.1 5	In case of failure to submit the final thesis within the stipulated time, a Ph.D. student shall have to apply for re-registration before expiry of the tenure of the existing registration. Ordinarily, a student will be allowed to be re-registered for once only. After re-registration the candidate is allowed to submit his/her thesis within next 2 years from the date of re-registration. The continuity of the research work will, however, be maintained and the candidate will be exempted from other procedural formalities, if completed earlier.
8.	EVALUATION AND ASSESSMENT METHOD
8.1	As per UGC 2016 norms: The overall minimum credit requirement, including credit for the course work, for the award of M.Phil. degree shall not be less than 24 credits. Upon satisfactory completion of course work, and obtaining the marks/grade, the M.Phil./Ph.D. scholar shall be required to undertake research work and produce a draft dissertation/thesis within a reasonable time, as stipulated by the Institution concerned based on UGC Regulations. Prior to the submission of the dissertation/thesis, the scholar shall make a presentation in the Department before the Research Advisory Committee of the Institution concerned which shall also be open to all faculty members and other research scholars. The feedback and comments obtained from them may be suitably incorporated into the draft dissertation/thesis in consultation with the Research Advisory Committee. M.Phil scholars shall present at least one (1) research paper in a conference/seminar and Ph.D. scholars must publish at least one (1) research paper in refereed journal and make two paper presentations in conferences/seminars before the submission of the dissertation/thesis for adjudication, and produce evidence for the same in the form of presentation certificates and/or reprints.

The Academic Council (or its equivalent body) of the Institution shall evolve a mechanism using well developed software and gadgets to detect plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. While submitting for evaluation, the dissertation/thesis shall have an undertaking from the research scholar and a certificate from the Research Supervisor attesting to the originality of the work, vouching that there is no plagiarism and that the work has not been submitted for the award of any other degree/diploma of the same Institution where the work was carried out, or to any other Institution.

The M.Phil. dissertation submitted by a research scholar shall be evaluated by his/her Research Supervisor and at least one external examiner who is not in the employment of the Institution/College.

The viva-voce examination, based among other things, on the critiques given in the evaluation report, shall be conducted by both of them together, and shall be open to be attended by Members of the Research Advisory Committee, all faculty members of the Department, other research scholars and other interested experts/ researchers.

The Ph.D. thesis submitted by a research scholar shall be evaluated by his/her Research Supervisor and at least two external examiners, who are not in employment of the Institution/College, of whom one examiner may be from outside the country. The viva-voce examination, based among other things, on the critiques given in the evaluation report, shall be conducted by the Research Supervisor and at least one of the two external examiners, and shall be open to be attended by Members of the Research Advisory Committee, all faculty members of the Department, other research scholars and other interested experts/researchers.

The public viva-voce of the research scholar to defend the dissertation/thesis shall be conducted only if the evaluation report(s) of the external examiner(s) on the dissertation/thesis is/are satisfactory and include a specific recommendation for conducting the viva-voce examination. If the evaluation report of the external examiner in case of M.Phil. dissertation, or one of the evaluation reports of the external examiner in case of Ph.D. thesis, is unsatisfactory and does not recommend viva-voce, the Institution shall send the dissertation/ thesis to another external examiner out of the approved panel of examiners and the viva-voce examination shall be held only if the report of the latest examiner is satisfactory. If the report of the latest examiner is also unsatisfactory, the dissertation/ thesis shall be rejected and the research scholar shall be declared ineligible for the award of the degree.

The Institutions shall develop appropriate methods so as to complete the entire process of evaluation of M.Phil. dissertation/ Ph.D. thesis within a period of six months from the date of submission of the dissertation/thesis.

Based on the above mentioned UGC regulations 2016, University decided to adopt following procedure:

Pre-Ph.D. Presentation:

Upon satisfactory completion of course work including research methodology, the Ph.D. Scholar shall undertake research work and produce a draft thesis within a reasonable time, as stipulated by the Faculty and Supervisor concerned.

The attendance of full-time Ph.D. candidates will be governed by the attendance requirements of the Faculty / Department.

Part-time Ph.D. candidates will be required to meet the Supervisor at least once every fortnight throughout the research. Attendance record should be maintained with the supervisor and office of the Faculty / Department.

Further the Ph.D. candidate has to submit at least three progress reports of the research work performed, on a periodic basis to the Research Advisory Committee, after the due approval and signature by the supervisor.

The Supervisor shall keep a record the progress of the candidate. The progress report of the candidate shall be forwarded by the Supervisor and Dean of the 8.4 Appointment of Examiners/Evaluators:

MAULANA AZAD UNIVERSITY, JODHPUR

Established Under Rajasthan State Legislative Act No. 35 of 2013

M.Phil./Ph.D. Regulations

Following procedure is to be adopted with maintenance of utmost confidentiality for every Ph.D. scholar and in no case the Ph.D. Candidate/Student/Scholar be informed about the developments otherwise this may be treated as 'unfair means' and his/her thesis/registration may be cancelled without any prior notice:

- a) The thesis produced by the Ph.D. student shall be evaluated by at least two external examiners/experts. For this purpose the Supervisor of the Ph.D. candidate/student must submit at least five names of external examiners/experts of the concerned subject/field of research (with addresses and phone nos. in a sealed envelope) as a 'panel of experts' to the Registrar office. Out of these suggested external examiners/experts at least one should be from outside the State (Rajasthan). In no case the suggested external examiners/experts be related to the Ph.D. candidate in any manner.
- b) The Registrar office will present the list of names of external examiners/experts (may be termed as 'Panel of Examiners/Experts') to the Honorable President who will suggest a minimum of two names (external examiners/experts) for evaluating the thesis.
- c) Out of the four copies of summary submitted by the Dean-Research, the Registrar office will send one copy of the summary to each of the two suggested experts (external examiners) and third copy to the supervisor with relevant documents. The supervisor will be the third examiner. The Registrar will send blank Performa for Consent also to all three examiners including Supervisor.
- d) Both External Examiners and the Supervisor will study the summary submitted by the student and based on their observations will send their consent to the Registrar (by post/E.Mail) that they are willing to evaluate the main thesis of the Ph.D. Scholar/Student/Candidate.
- e) Upon receipt of all three consent letters, the registrar shall send the copies of main thesis to each of the two external examiners and also to the supervisor.
- f) Ordinarily a period of three months shall be allowed for evaluating the thesis. If the report of any examiner is not received within a reasonable period, steps may be taken to appoint another examiner.

- g) The examiner shall send the report to the Registrar in prescribed form together with additional observations such as he/she deems necessary.
- h) The examiners may express their categorical opinions based on the following points:
- i. That the thesis is an original piece of research work and a contribution to knowledge either from the point of the discovery of new facts or the interpretation of fact or both.
 - ii. That the candidate has given proof of consistent thinking and of critical approach to the problems enunciated by him.
 - iii. That the thesis is satisfactory so far as its literary presentation is concerned.
- i) The examiner shall make a clear recommendation that:
Either (i) The thesis is accepted for the Ph.D. degree.
Or (ii) The thesis be rejected:
Or (iii) The candidate be allowed to present his thesis in a revised form.
- j) When a thesis is unanimously and unconditionally recommended for the Degree by all the examiners, the candidate will be eligible for appearing at the Viva-Voce.
- k) If there is any ambiguity or conditionality in the reports of the examiners, the President may consider the appointment of a third external examiner/expert from the existing Panel of External Examiners/Experts.
- l) In case of non-recommendation by one of the external examiners, the President may consider the appointment of a third external examiner from the existing panel.
- m) On receipt of satisfactory evaluation reports from External Examiners/Experts and from the Supervisor, the office of the Registrar shall send all of the reports to the Dean of the concerned Faculty and ask him/her to arrange for the main viva of the Ph.D. Candidate. The Registrar will also provide the names of the external examiners and the Supervisor to the concerned Dean.
